PRESENTER BIO

Dr. Polavin has eight years of experience in jury research and the legal field. He earned a Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy in Communication — with concentrations in Decision Psychology and Social Psychology — from the Ohio State University. Nick’s research focuses on how jurors process information, their biases, and how they determine damage awards. At Litigation Insights, he uses this knowledge and experience both in-court assisting with jury selection and in developing themes and recommendations for trial based on mock trials and focus groups.
